All our students get the opportunity to perform on stage in their FIRST Year!

Team Selection

Teams are formed based on heights, ages and aptitude as the main criteria.

Focus is given to posture of the body accompanied by the finer movements.

Every team has a different set of steps suitable to its level.

When teams are full for the session, new members are put on wait list.

A minimum of eight members is required to form a team.

- ❖ Print student's name and class time on the envelope.

All new enrollments will register for the Basic level class in the appropriate age group. Unless the instructor promotes the child to an older age group. The class duration is 1 hour. Parents are requested to bring their children on time.

Parents are not allowed to sit in the class during the teaching is in progress. They can watch only for the last 5 mins of the class.

Students should come to class in proper dance uniform.

Parents must sign in on their child's attendance sheet every class.

Fees must be paid on time, or there is a late fee charge.

Classes missed will not be made up, except those cancelled by the instructor. The initial 10 mins of every class is revision time of the steps done in the class prior, so every child can make up her unlearned steps that way.

During rehearsals for performances, there could be more than one class per week.

The performance costumes & accessories would be provided by the teacher with an additional cost.
